PLAINFIELD, IN – May 3, 2024 – Hendricks Live! in downtown Plainfield hosted its grand opening gala in high fashion last night with a packed house and special appearance by the legendary Judy Collins. The new venue is playing host to local, regional and national talent as part of its mission. On the heels of last night's gala, the venue also just announced 11 brand new national touring shows for its 2024 season on top of their previously announced and upcoming shows already on sale.

"The opening night gala featuring Judy Collins was everything we had hoped for and more, a truly amazing launch celebrating years of planning and hard work," said Chris Petrelli, Executive Director of Hendricks Live!. "It is inspiring how the community has embraced what has already become a pillar in the expansion and revitalization of Plainfield. We can't wait to have a front row seat as the growth and support of the arts at the local, regional and national level is now here for all to enjoy."
